

9. A note that is a perfect fifth above another note has a frequency that is  $\frac{3}{2}$  times the original note. Thus the frequency of the note sol will be

$$f = \left(\frac{3}{2}\right) (528 \text{ Hz})$$

$$f = 792 \text{ Hz}$$