

4.1 WHAT MAKES A GOOD PHOTO?

DIRECTIONS: Give your photographers seven tips for getting good photos based on your reading of chapter 4 of The Newspaper Designer's Handbook.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____

BEST QUOTE

Show readers images that have a direct connection to today's news (the movers and shakers, winners and losers — not squirrels playing in the park). Photos must provide information, not decoration.

After reading the behind-the-scenes stories from the photographers' commentaries, write one brief piece of advice from them that you think is worth passing along.

Below are two photos. Based on the tips you wrote above, write some advice you could give the photographer for improving these photos.

