

PREFACE

We are delighted to publish the Fifth Edition of the innovative and communicatively oriented textbook ¿Sabías que...?? When we wrote the First Edition, we were responding to what we saw as a real need in the field: a package of materials that was truly oriented toward communication in the classroom and that broke away from traditional presentations and practice of grammar. We wanted to demonstrate that classrooms could be places where the language was used to talk about real things without sacrificing coverage of basic grammatical points that most instructors have come to expect from beginning Spanish textbooks. We also wanted to create a book that incorporated the ideas behind the roles of both input and output in language learning and fashioned them into a coherent approach. Our concern was simply this: Without new materials and with severe constraints on their time, how could instructors move classes toward the kinds of instructional interactions that theory and research were showing to be beneficial to language learning? We believed that without a change in approach, there could be no change in language instruction.

Now, sixteen years later, we find that the description of the First Edition of ¿Sabías que...?? is still appropriate for this Fifth Edition.

Are you looking for a Spanish textbook that

- encourages students to concentrate on exchanging real-life information about each other and the world around them?
- makes as much use of class time as possible to communicate ideas?
- is at times provocative?
- is filled with engaging activities?

Are you looking for a textbook that is all those things but doesn't sacrifice basic grammar? Then welcome to ¿Sabías que...?? and the world of information-based instruction! ¿Sabías que...?? is an innovative package of materials for introductory Spanish courses. It weaves together content language learning and interactive tasks in which information is exchanged—and it gives a complete package to instructors who want to develop students' communicative proficiency in all four skills from the first day of instruction.

Are you also looking for a textbook that can help you focus on the five Cs of the Standards for Foreign Language Learning: Communication, Cultures, Connections, Comparisons, and Communities? In as much as a beginning university level textbook can reflect the spirit of the Standards, ¿Sabías que...?? does an excellent job.

- Communication: ¿Sabías que...?? is ideal as a starting point in terms of communication for learners of Spanish because of the meaningful and communicative tasks that form the core of its pedagogy. Communication in ¿Sabías que...?? occurs in all skills and pushes learners to use what they have learned in a purposeful manner.
- Cultures: ¿Sabías que...?? introduces learners to both big C and little c cultural information through the ¿Sabías que...?* boxes, the Vistazos culturales sections, and elsewhere.
- Connections: Learners frequently make connections with other disciplines through the readings as well as through tasks that ask them to bring in knowledge from other areas.
- Comparisons: Learners compare and contrast aspects of grammar, vocabulary, and usage not only between English and Spanish but also between dialects of Spanish.
- Communities: Finally, learners are encouraged to use Spanish outside the classroom with assignments that get them to interview people and use the Web. In this way, they are pushed to use Spanish in a non-academic setting and to seek connections with communities beyond classroom walls.

Both instructors and students will find ¿Sabías que...?? to be a real book. It contains universal topics and contemporary themes that are meaningful to students. Many of its readings were culled from magazines that were written for Spanish speakers and not contrived for grammar or vocabulary practice. Spanish is actually used, not just talked about. We hope that you'll share our enthusiasm for these materials, and that you and your class will enjoy many hours of both learning Spanish and learning about each other.

The Information-Based Task Approach

The information-based task approach is a communicative approach. It springs from the idea that languages are best learned when real-world information becomes the focus of student activities. The organization of an information-based approach is simple:

1. Formulate a question or set of questions for the student to answer.
2. Give the student the linguistic tools necessary to get the answer.
3. Provide the student with a source or sources for the information.

For more on this unique and innovative approach, please consult the Instructor's Manual.

Organization of the Text

¿Sabías que...?, Fifth Edition, consists of a preliminary lesson (Lección preliminar) and six units of three lessons each. Each unit presents a general theme that is explored in its three lessons.

The organization of the major sections of each lesson allows instructors to organize class meetings better and develop course syllabi (see the Instructor's Manual for ideas on lesson and syllabus planning). Each of these major sections is described in the Guided Tour Through ¿Sabías que...? on the following pages. The first two lessons of every unit include:

- three Ideas para explorar sections
- vocabulary (Vocabulario) and grammar (Gramática) presentations within each Ideas para explorar section
- Intercambio
- Vistazos culturales

The third lesson of each unit includes:

- two Ideas para explorar sections
- Vocabulario and Gramática presentations
- Vamos a ver
- Composición
- Vistazos culturales

*Lección 3 contains an Intercambio activity instead of Composición.

A Guided Tour Through ¿Sabías que...?

Lesson-Opening Page Each lesson-opening page contains an advance organizer that informs students about what they will be focusing on in the current lesson. Another feature included on each lesson-opening page is a stop-sign icon that references the Intercambio or Composición activity at the end of the lesson. This offers students a preview of what they will learn in the lesson and gives them a task to work toward.

Ideas para explorar Each Ideas para explorar section introduces a subtopic of the lesson theme through the Vocabulario and Gramática presentations.

Vocabulario Each Vocabulario presents new active vocabulary related to the lesson theme and is followed by activities that encourage students to use the new vocabulary in context.

Some Vocabulario sections include Vocabulario útil boxes. These boxes highlight additional active vocabulary that students can use in the activities of the lesson.

Gramática A highlighted box accompanying many Gramática sections focuses on the presentation material in an easy-to-follow format. Grammar explanations are succinct and the activities that follow allow students to use the grammar in meaning-based exchanges.

¿Sabías que...? does not offer purely mechanical grammar practice, such as transformation and substitution drills. Grammar is presented bit by bit, with points explained only as necessary for students to perform the various tasks in the lesson.

VAMOS A VER

ANTICIPACIÓN

Paso 1 The reading on page 94 is adapted from a magazine for general readership. Look at the title and the photo without reading anything else. Can you guess the meaning of the word superestrella? Select from these two options: (a) superhit; (b) superstar. Read the first paragraph of the reading to see if you're right.

Paso 2 By now you know the article is about Desi Arnaz. What do you know about him already? Thinking about this will help you read guess words in context as well as comprehend more of what you read. Look at the following statements and select the correct answer for each. Share with the class.

1. Desi Arnaz nació en _____.
a. Puerto Rico b. Cuba c. México

2. Se mudó (He moved) a los Estados Unidos por razones _____.
a. políticas b. económicas c. personales

3. Comenzó su carrera profesional con _____.
a. la música b. el teatro c. la televisión

Desi Arnaz con Lucille Ball

La primera superestrella latina

¿En qué piensas cuando oyes la frase «superestrella latina»? ¿Piensas en Jennifer López? ¿en Ricky Martin? ¿en Selma Hayek? ¿en Gloria Estefan? Aunque es cierto que estas personas y muchas otras de ascendencia latina tienen gran fama hoy en día, el primer latino de gran fama en la música, el cine y la televisión de los Estados Unidos fue Desi Arnaz de la serie I Love Lucy.

De Cuba a Hollywood

Arnaz nació con el nombre de Desiderio Alberto Arnaz de Acha III, en Santiago, Cuba, en 1917. Debido a la revolución de Batista en 1933, la familia Arnaz huyó de Cuba para instalarse en Miami. Puesto que tuvieron que abandonar sus propiedades y dinero, los Arnaz llegaron a Miami con muy poco. Aceptaron trabajos mínimos y uno de los primeros trabajos de Desi fue limpiar jaulas de canarios. Pero la música siempre fue su pasión y decidieron lanzarse a la carrera de músico y cantante, siguiendo las huellas de Xavier Cugat, «el rey de música latina». Formó su propio grupo musical y con éxitos como «Babalu» hizo muy popular la conga entre el público norteamericano. Su carrera lo llevó a Broadway y después a Hollywood.

De las películas a la televisión

En 1940 conoció a Lucille Ball durante la filmación de Too Many Girls. Se casó con ella y en diez años los dos fundaron la compañía Desilu. La serie I Love Lucy se estrenó en 1951 y aunque Lucy era la estrella, el genio creativo de esa y muchas otras producciones televisivas era Desi. Gracias al personaje de Ricky Ricardo, la presencia latina en la televisión y la cultura norteamericana en general se estableció. Pero el matrimonio entre Desi y Lucille no duró y se divorciaron en 1960, después de tener dos hijos. En 1976, Arnaz publicó su autobiografía, A Book, y diez años más tarde murió de cáncer. Muchos críticos contemporáneos dicen que las superestrellas latinas de hoy le deben mucho a Desi, quien abrió la puerta para los latinos que llegaron después.

INTERCAMBIO

¿Cómo es la familia de...?

Propósito: dibujar (to draw) el árbol genealógico de alguna persona en la clase.

Papeles: una persona entrevistada; el resto de la clase dividido en cinco grupos.

Paso 1 El profesor (La profesora) le va a asignar a cada grupo una de las siguientes categorías:

Categoría 1: miembros de la familia nuclear Categoría 2: abuelos
Categoría 3: tíos, incluyendo a los esposos y esposas
Categoría 4: las características particulares de los diferentes parientes (por ejemplo, la persona más loca [crazies]; ver Así se dice) y sus pasatiempos especiales

Cada grupo debe hacer las preguntas necesarias para obtener toda la información sobre su categoría. Por ejemplo, se puede preguntar sobre los nombres de los parientes, su edad, dónde viven, etcétera.

Paso 2 Los grupos deben entrevistar a la persona seleccionada. Toda la clase debe escuchar las respuestas y apuntar (jar down) toda la información. (OJO! Si no entiende algo, debe pedir aclaración.)

Paso 3 En casa, trazar el árbol genealógico de la persona entrevistada. Incluya todos los detalles. A continuación hay un ejemplo de cómo se pone el nombre de un parente en el árbol genealógico.

Si en su tiempo, uno o dos voluntarios debe(n) presentar su dibujo a la clase y dar una descripción de dos o tres minutos de varios miembros de la familia.

Así se dice

To say the biggest, the smallest, so forth, Spanish uses the definite article + más + adjective.
To say the most intelligent, the least shy, and so forth, Spanish uses the definite article + el más + adjective.
Two exceptions are mayor and menor.
ella más inteligente the smartest
ella menor dimidita the least shy ella mayor the oldest ella menor the youngest

Maria Siles, 68, divorciada. Vive en Florida. Es la más conocida de la familia.

Vamos a ver The reading selections in Vamos a ver are based on authentic materials.

Pre- and postreading activities help students learn such strategies as reading for content, summarizing information, and guessing contextually. Practice in recognizing cognates is often an important part of these activities.

In Anticipación students think about the topic they are to read, make predictions about the content of the reading, preview vocabulary, and perform other activities that will help maximize their comprehension.

In Exploración students read and gather information—a process accomplished by scanning for specific information, verifying predictions from the Anticipación section, skimming for general meaning, and so forth. Students also begin to read for detail, usually by tackling the reading a section at a time.

In Síntesis students pull together the information that they have gathered from the reading. Typical activities include completing information grids, creating outlines, creating semantic maps, and writing compositions.

In Trabajando con el texto (not included in every Vamos a ver section) students go back to the reading to examine features of language or discourse, such as recurring grammatical forms or structures, the organizational structure of the text, or the author's purpose in writing the text.

In ¡Sigamos!, which concludes Vamos a ver, students work further with the themes and topics of the reading.

Intercambio Intercambio is the culminating activity found in most lessons. Designed for partner/pair or small group work, Intercambio draws upon the vocabulary and grammar structures presented within the lesson to summarize the material in an exciting and engaging lesson-ending task.

Composición The third lesson of most units culminates in Composición, a guided writing assignment that integrates vocabulary and grammatical structures of the lesson.

In Antes de escribir, students think about the writing topic through brainstorming and organize the information in their composition.

In Al escribir helps students draft their compositions. In this section, students not only write, but they also reflect upon what they have written and seek feedback from peers.

In Después de escribir, students edit their final draft for vocabulary and grammar, and they create a clean, final version to hand in to their instructor.

Comunicación These activities are done with a partner or in small groups. Although all activities in ¿Sabías que...? are meaning-based in nature, Comunicación activities involve more interaction with classmates. A Comunicación icon in the margin signals the beginning of the Comunicación activities for each Vocabulario and Gramática section.

¿Sabías que...? ¿Sabías que...? boxes highlight facts about Hispanic cultures as well as the world around us. All ¿Sabías que...? boxes are accompanied by an activity or appear as part of the new Vistazos culturales sections.

Así se dice, Consejo práctico, Nota comunicativa Así se dice boxes provide additional information about Spanish vocabulary and grammar. Consejo práctico boxes point out key difference between Spanish and English and offer helpful advice to students. Nota comunicativa boxes present words and phrases to help students complete communicative tasks.

Icons Icons identify Web, listening, video, and online ActivityPak activities and features as well as classroom activities that require a separate sheet of paper or group work.

COMPOSICIÓN

En esta lección has examinado cuestiones sobre el futuro. En esta composición vas a escribir sobre «La vida diaria en el año 2050».

Antes de escribir

Paso 1 El propósito de la composición es predecir ciertos aspectos del futuro y describir cómo será la vida diaria en 2050. Vas a dirigirte a la clase. El tono que adoptas puede ser cómico o serio. La composición deberá limitarse a unas 250 palabras.

Paso 2 ¿Cómo se trata de la vida diaria, qué temas vas a tratar? ¿Qué temas vas a excluir? Haz una lista de los aspectos que se pueden considerar «de la vida diaria». ¿Quintos vas a incluir?

Paso 3 Debes prestar atención al aspecto lingüístico. (Sabes usar los puntos gramaticales que estudiaste en esta lección?)

- el futuro
- el subjuntivo con expresiones de duda, posibilidad, etcétera

Al escribir

Paso 1 A continuación hay algunas expresiones que pueden ayudarte a expresar tus ideas. No te olvides de tomar en cuenta el tono de tu composición antes de usarlas.

más que nada	above all se caracterizará por	will probably be characterized by
por _____ que _____	as _____ as may _____
(por contenidos que estemos)	(as happy as we may be)

Paso 2 Las siguientes expresiones te pueden resultar útiles al escribir la composición.

venga lo que venga	come what may...
Passo lo que pase	come what may...
lo que pasará, pasará, pero...	whatever happens will happen, but...

Paso 3 Escribe la composición dos días antes de entregársela al profesor (a la profesora).

COMUNICACIÓN

ACTIVIDAD C ¿Qué prefieres?

Paso 1 Entrevista a tres personas para saber qué bebidas prefieren o les gusta tomar en cada ocasión a continuación. Apunta sus respuestas.

	x1	x2	x3
1. para el desayuno (por la mañana)	—	—	—
2. con una hamburguesa	—	—	—
3. para la merienda	—	—	—
4. cuando sale con unos amigos por la noche	—	—	—
5. mientras estudia (trabaja, lee)	—	—	—

Paso 2 La clase debe entrevistar al profesor (a la profesora). ¿Son diferentes sus preferencias de las de Uds o son iguales?

¿Sabías que...?

Campiña, España
Música Cultural

en España se vive más? Según los nuevos datos, la esperanza de vida* en España es de 78,1 años, mientras que en los Estados Unidos es menos: 76,6 años. Sin embargo, los nuevos cálculos de la Organización Mundial de la Salud¹ ofrecen un dato tipo de dato: esperanza de vida saludable*. Con este cálculo se calcula el número de años que una persona puede esperar vivir en buena salud. En España esta cifra es de 72,8 años. En Latinoamérica el país con mayor esperanza de vida saludable es Cuba: 68,4 años. ¿Y cuál es el país de mayor esperanza de vida saludable en el mundo? El Japón, con unos 74,5 años.

*esperanza... life expectancy... Organización... World Health Organization *healthy

Así se dice

Why are some verbs preceded by se? Such verbs are called reflexive verbs, and you will learn about them in Lección 5. For now, take note of which verbs are used with se. ¡OJO! Se does not mean he or she. Él and ella mean he and she.

(El) Se levanta.
She gets up.
(El) Se acuesta.
He goes to bed.

Consejo práctico

Although learning how to speak is the goal of many students of Spanish, acquisition of a language is actually dependent on opportunities to hear or read language in context. For this reason, in ¿Sabías que...? you always begin learning new vocabulary or grammar by listening to or reading the new items in context.

Nota comunicativa

Here are two expressions you may find useful in the classroom. To ask a question, you can say Tengo una pregunta, por favor. I have a question, please. To ask how to say a particular word in Spanish, you can ask ¿Cómo se dice _____ en español? How do you say _____ in Spanish?

Vistazos culturales

This informative and colorful two-page cultural section appears near the end of each lesson and addresses a specific theme as it applies to a variety of Spanish-speaking countries. Each Vistazos culturales is followed by comprehension questions in ¿Qué recuerdas? and a Navegando la Red activity in which students complete a project and present their findings to the class. This complete Navegando la Red activity is available in the Student Edition of the ¿Sabías que... ? Online Learning Center at www.mhhe.com/sabiasque5.

Vistazos culturales

El folclor en el mundo hispano

¿Sabías que...

el mundo hispano tiene una tradición folclórica muy rica? El folclor en el mundo hispano se manifiesta en sus mitos y leyendas, en él y en las artesanías*, en las canciones* y en muchas otras expresiones artísticas*. En España, se puede notar la influencia árabe, gitana, romana y de otras culturas europeas. El folclor refleja mitos que llegaron de África, Asia y Europa. Los folclores de otras culturas europeas y africanas que llegaron después de la época colonial. En la Guineña Ecuatoriana se habla de un dios llamado Oshún; ¿por qué? Porque es un dios africano. ¿Por qué es un dios africano? Porque es un dios africano!

*mitos... myths and legends *folklore *songs *mitos... more plus anything *relaciones... stronger

La religión

La santería es una religión afrocubana parecida al Vodú y tiene sus raíces en la cultura voudú del Caribe y en las artes folclóricas de África. Aunque la santería es una religión principalmente africana tiene una gran influencia católica. La santería se practica en Brasil, Cuba, Haití, Trinidad, Puerto Rico y en partes de los Estados Unidos donde viven inmigrantes de estos países.

maestros prior

leyendas y mitos del mundo hispano

La Llorona*
La Llorona es una leyenda mexicana que cuenta la historia de una mujer bella y trágica llamada María. María se casa con un ranchero, tienen varios hijos, pero el ranchero comienza a prestarles más atención a los hijos que a María. Un día María se cae de su cama horriblemente herida. Al dia siguiente da a María la muerte del pueblo que vivía en la montaña, cerca del lago. Hoy en día, la gente dice que el espíritu de María va por el río de noche, llorando en voz alta. Es por eso que la llaman La Llorona.

La Llorona (1897) por Diana Bryer (norteamericana, 1842-1910)*

El Popol Vuh
El Popol Vuh es el "código" de los mayas quichés. Parte de la historia maya incluye la historia de la creación del mundo. Señal este mito, los dioses crearon el mundo, los animales y los primeros varones y mujeres incluyendo el lodo y la materia* para nacer humanos. Al final, se menciona la creación del sol y la luna, así como el sol naciente. Al final, se menciona la creación del sol y la luna, así como el sol naciente.

lodo... mud; agua... water; materia... material; luna... moon*

La religión

En México el arte folclórico indígena se vale de varios estilos diferentes. Los tapetistas hacen tapetes con colores puros en cuadros decorativos. Los señas representados incluyen animales y objetos celestiales. Los bordadores de Chiapas y de Méjico se especializan en un arte que utiliza abstracciones* de colores brillantes.

arte... makes use of arte... hand

La artesanía

El pueblo de San Juan de Oriente en Nicaragua se conoce por su "arte que se ha practicado" siguiendo las técnicas de sus antepasados. Las piezas representan tanto temas románticos modernos con diseños geométricos.

Afervana de San Juan de Oriente

ceramic... ceramics; pot... pot; dried... dried; model... model; special... unique; may... never never*

You can investigate these cultural topics in more detail on the ¿Sabías que...? Online Learning Center: www.nabhe.com/abiasque5.

Lección 3 ¿Qué hiciste ayer?

Lección 3 ¿Qué hiciste ayer?

cuento tres 103

Grammar Summary A grammar summary concluding each unit highlights the major grammar points presented in the preceding lessons and offers students a handy summary guide to help them improve upon their knowledge of grammatical structures in Spanish.

GRAMMAR SUMMARY

UNIDAD UNO For Lección preliminar - Lección 3

The Verb ser

(yo)	soy	(nosotros/as)	somos
(tú)	eres	(vosotros/as)	sois
(Ud.)	es	(Uds.)	son
(él/ella)	es	(ellos/ellas)	son

The verb ser is used to:

1. express origin with de: ¿De dónde eres?
2. describe a person's qualities: Tomás es muy inteligente, ¿no?
3. state who or what a person is: Es profesor. Soy estudiante.
4. tell time: Es la 1:00. / Son las 2:00.

Remember that subject pronouns are not always required in Spanish. It is fine to say soy estudiante. If you say yo soy estudiante, you are adding emphasis or making a contrast.

The Verb estar

One of the uses of estar is to describe variable conditions.

Tomás está muy contento con su trabajo.
Estoy aburrida de mi clase de inglés.

The Verb gustar

me	nos
te	os
le	les
le	les

1. Gustar does not mean to like. It is closest in meaning to the verb to please. Thus me gusta actually means (something) pleases me.

2. Since gustar means to please, the verb must agree in number with the thing doing the pleasing: Me gusta esta clase. Me gustan todas las clases.

3. A phrase with a c can be used with this construction.

A mí me gustan las matemáticas.
¿A ti te gustan también?
A los profesores no les gusta corregir exámenes.

Present Tense of Regular Verbs

-ar	-er	-ir
(yo)	me levanto	como	asisto
(tú)	te levantas	comes	asistes
(Ud.)	se levanta	come	asiste
(él/ella)	se levanta	come	asiste
(nosotros/as)	nos levantamos	comemos	asistimos
(vosotros/as)	os levantais	coméis	asistís
(Uds.)	se levantan	comen	asisten
(ellos/ellas)	se levantan	comen	asisten

Remember that even though Ud. and él/ella share the same verb forms, Ud. means a single formal, socially distant and él/ella refers to a third person (he/she). Likewise, Uds. means you plural and ellos/ellas refers to some other persons (they).

What's New in the Fifth Edition?

We have made the following changes to ¿Sabías que...? in response to instructor feedback on the Fourth Edition.

- Some of the Vamos a ver reading selections have been updated or replaced. The reading in Lección 3 continues the theme of Latin superstars in North America, but now discusses the first one ever, Desi Arnaz. The theme of “something good turning into something bad if abused” has been retained in Lección 12, but now the reading addresses cell phone addiction instead of addiction to computers.
- Many of the Vistazos culturales spreads now contain more visuals and fewer text boxes to make them more intelligible and meaningful to beginning students.
- More production-based activities provide students with additional opportunities to speak and interact from the first lesson. Beginning with Lección 7, three new recurring activity types that allow for open-ended discussion and interaction begin to appear:
 1. En tu opinión: Students read about a situation and then offer their reactions to it.
 2. ¿Qué haces?: Students read about a situation and explain how they would react or respond.
 3. En el escenario: Students role-play different situations.
 4. Una historia: Students examine a series of drawings and create a story based on what they see. They are encouraged to go beyond the drawings and add background information on the characters and settings.
- New on-page annotations in the early lessons serve to explain some of the philosophical and methodological aspects of ¿Sabías que...? to first-time instructors. For example, annotations for activities in Lección 1 are now flagged with “Input Activity” or “Production Activity” to help familiarize first-time instructors with the natural progression from input to production activities within each Vocabulario or Gramática section that is a key element of the ¿Sabías que...? methodology.
-  ■ The Los hispanos hablan testimonials have been renamed Videoteca and moved to the student Manual. Audio-only versions of these testimonials are included in the Audio

Program, and the video segments can still be seen on the Video, Video on CD, or Online Learning Center.

- The Interactive CD-ROM from the Fourth Edition has been updated and redesigned and is now an online product called the “ActivityPak,” which is available on the Online Learning Center.
- Finally, activities and other proven features have been revised to keep the program fresh and up-to-date for the many loyal users of ¿Sabías que...?

Supplements

As a full-service publisher of quality educational products, McGraw-Hill does much more than just sell textbooks to your students. We create and publish an extensive array of print, video, and digital supplements to support instruction on your campus. Orders of new (versus used) textbooks help us to defray the cost of developing such supplements, which is substantial. Please consult your local McGraw-Hill representative to learn about the availability of the supplements that accompany this Fifth Edition of ¿Sabías que...?

For Instructors and for Students

- The Manual que acompaña ¿Sabías que...?, Volumes 1 and 2, offers additional practice with vocabulary, grammar, and listening comprehension. A distinguishing feature of the Manual is the Vamos a ver section near the end of every third lesson that provides non-conversational listening practice. Students listen to a short presentation about a topic related to the unit themes, thus practicing the skills needed to comprehend a lecture. The Manual also offers a Videoteca activity at the end of every lesson. Formerly the Los hispanos hablan from the Fourth Edition, these activities offer video interviews with Spanish speakers from around the world as well as pre- and post-viewing activities.

- McGraw-Hill is proud to partner with Quia™ in the development of the Online Manual que acompaña ¿Sabías que...?, Fifth Edition Volumes 1 and 2. Carefully integrated with the textbook, this robust digital version of the printed Manual is easy for students to use and great for instructors who want to manage students’ coursework online. Identical in practice material to the print version, the Online Manual contains the full audio program, as well as the Videoteca video segments, and provides students with automatic feedback and scoring of their work. The Instructor's Workstation contains an easy-to-use gradebook and class roster system that facilitates course management.

- The Audio Program that accompanies the Manual provides additional listening comprehension practice outside of the classroom.

- The new online ActivityPak, available on the Online Learning Center, offers students opportunities to review the grammar, vocabulary, and cultural topics presented in the textbook, all in an engaging multimedia environment.

- Through the new online ActivityPak as well as other discrete-point exercises, the Online Learning Center provides practice with the grammar and vocabulary presented in the textbook. It also helps students bring the Spanish-speaking world into their language-learning experience through a variety of cultural resources.

- The Video Program contains the Videoteca interviews as well as six exciting segments shot on location that examine particular themes within each unit and include interviews with Spanish speakers.

- Sin falta is a powerful Spanish writing program on CD-ROM with the following features: a word processor, a bilingual Spanish-English dictionary with over 250,000 entries, an online Spanish grammar reference, basic grammar check functions, and more!

- Three cultural and literary readers are available to supplement first- and second-year Spanish instruction. Written in Spanish, these readers offer the chance for students to broaden their knowledge of the richness of the cultures of the Spanish-speaking world as well as to increase their developing reading skills.

1. El mundo hispano: An Introductory Cultural and Literary Reader contains cultural information on the six major regions of the Spanish-speaking world, including the United States, as well as excerpts from Spanish-language literary classics with accompanying comprehension questions.
2. Mundos de fantasía: Fábulas, cuentos de hadas y leyendas contains popular Hispanic fables, fairy tales, and legends.

3. Cocina y comidas hispanas highlights favorite recipes from around the Hispanic world.

For Instructors Only

- The annotated Instructor's Edition contains detailed suggestions for carrying out activities in class. It also offers options for expansion and follow-up.
- The combined Instructor's Manual and Testing Program expands on the methodology of ¿Sabías que...? Among other things, it offers suggestions for carrying out the activities in the textbook and suggests ways to provide students with appropriate feedback on their compositions. The Testing Program includes sample quizzes for each lesson as well as unit tests.

- The Instructor's Edition of the Online Learning Center contains the following resources to assist instructors in getting the most out of the ¿Sabías que...? program.

1. Instructor's Manual (Word files of the print version)
2. Testing Program (Word files of the print version)
3. Audioscript (transcript of the Audio Program)
4. Videoscript (transcript of the Video Program)
5. Digital Transparencies (line art from the textbook)

- Making Communicative Language Teaching Happen, Second Edition, by James F. Lee and Bill VanPatten presents and explains current theories and research in the field of Second Language Acquisition. It is a natural companion volume for instructors using ¿Sabías que...?

- From input to output, edited by James F. Lee and Bill VanPatten, explains in everyday, non-academic language the progression from input to output that is central to the methodology of ¿Sabías que...?

Acknowledgments

We would like to thank the following instructors for completing reviews that were indispensable in the development of ¿Sabías que...?, Fifth Edition. The appearance of their names does not necessarily constitute an endorsement of the text or its methodology.

Paloma Borreguero, University of Washington
 Angela DeLutis-Eichenberger, University of Maryland—College Park

Loredana Margaret Di Stravolo, University of Maryland
Rafael Durmett, University of San Francisco
Elena González Ros, Brandeis University
Anthony Houston, St. Louis University
Martin Laina, University of Notre Dame
Rachel Ann Linville, University of Maryland
Kristina McCollam Wiebe, Kansas State University
Alice A. Miano, Stanford University
Michael Morris, Northern Illinois University
Zara Pastos, Whitworth College
Kelly Roberton, Whitworth College
Regina Roebuck, University of Louisville
Cristina Sanz, Georgetown University
Jennie Sevedge, Whitworth College
Joseph R. Weyers, College of Charleston
Julie Wilhelm, Iowa State University

Many other individuals deserve our thanks and appreciation for their help and support. First, we thank Gregory Keating for his work on the original manuscript for the Vistazos culturales sections. Thanks go to Michael J. Leeser, Mark Overstreet, and Julie Sellers for their work on portions of the original manuscript for the Online ActivityPak. For creating the original quizzes found on the Online Learning Center, we thank Deborah Gill, Gayle Vierma, and Julie Sellers. We extend special thanks to the people who shared their thoughts and generously gave their time to be interviewed for the Vamos a ver and Los hispanos hablan video segments. We also thank Laura Chastain, whose careful reading of the manuscript for details of style, clarity, and language added considerably to the quality of the final version.

Thanks are due to the entire production team at McGraw-Hill, especially David Staloch, Jackie Henry (Techbooks), Natalia Peschiera, Robin Mouat, Rich DeVitto, Louis Swaim, and Violeta Díaz.

We are grateful to our publisher William R. Glass, our sponsoring editor Katherine K. Crouch, and to Nick Agnew and the rest of the McGraw-Hill Marketing and Sales team for their unflagging support and promotion of the ¿Sabías que...? program. Very special thanks are also due to the editorial team of Scott Tinetti, Allen J. Bernier, Mara Brown, Pennie Nichols, and Amanda Peabody for a wonderful editing job and helping this edition move so smoothly on its path from manuscript to publication.

Last, but not least, we would like to thank our family and friends who have given us a great deal of support over the years. You know who you are and we care a great deal about you all!