

Chapter 23. How Web Browsers Do Multimedia

Across

1. Standard protocol through which programs interact with Web pages.
4. Programming language invented by Sun Microsystems.
7. Macromedia plug-in for multimedia.
9. Audio that plays as part of Web page is _____.
11. Sound, video, and animations.
13. Software that is launched from a browser to play some multimedia.
16. Downloaded software may contain this harmful software.

Down

2. Web page picture which allows you to click on different spots to trigger different reactions.
3. Plug-in to play MIDI files.
5. Small programs written in Java.
6. Simple language for creating animation effects and other utilities on Web pages.
7. Programs which reside on the server and provide functionality to pages.
8. Programs which operate from the user's computer to add functions to Web pages.
10. Software added to a browser to play certain types of multimedia.
12. One of the video formats that is supported by Web browsers.
14. Programming language commonly used for creating CGI scripts.
15. Language created by Microsoft to add active elements to Web pages.