Chap. 3: Getting Connected

Across

1. A way to connect to the Internet at speeds ranging from 128 Kbps to 1.5 Mbps and higher.
3. Formal name for the protocol that connects computers to the Internet.
7. The physical connection over which information travels on the Internet.
11. Most often connections to the Internet are via wire or cable, but they can also be _____.
12. Used to connect your computer to the Internet via a telephone line.
13. Media over which data can move at 10 to 100 Megabits per second.
14. Used to connect computers to the Internet via television cable.

Down

2. A source for finding out about ISPs in your area.
4. Most common way to connect to the Internet.
5. A way to purchase Internet connection time in advance of using it.
6. Currently, the largest Internet Service Provider.
8. Some ISPs are _____.
9. Company that provides you with your connection to the Internet.
10. Digital telephone system.