

About the Author

Dr. Siddhartha Sankar Saha is a senior faculty member (Accounting and Finance), at Department of Commerce, St. Xavier's College (Autonomous), Kolkata. He has earned his Ph. D in finance, on thesis titled "Role of Merchant Bankers in Corporate Financing (Capital Issue Management) in India" from the University of Calcutta. With more than two decades of teaching experience, he has taught at undergraduate as well as postgraduate levels.

He is also associated with Department of Commerce (MBA-Finance), University of Calcutta, Department of Commerce, University of Kalyani as well as other institutions including business schools. He supervises research scholars under the Department of Commerce, University of Calcutta. He is currently pursuing a major research project, funded by the UGC, titled "Ethical role of statutory auditor on corporate scam in safeguarding stakeholders' interest in India and abroad: A comparative study since 1990".

Dr. Saha has to his credit more than 35 published articles, covering several accounting and finance issues, in leading national journals like The Chartered Accountant, The Chartered Secretary, The Accounting World—ICFAI, The Management Accountant, Research Bulletin—ICWAI, etc. He has also attended several conferences and seminars as a resource person and presented papers across the country. His areas of research interest include corporate finance and emerging issues in primary capital market, corporate social responsibility, corporate governance, emerging issues in accounting, auditing and finance, etc.